Championship Co-Ordinator Reports:

Autotests –

Stage Rallies – 22 registered contenders – next round NW Stages at Blackpool.

Road Rallies – 1st round Ryemoor Road Rally. No Danum RR this year due to PR problems and lack of organisers.

Autotests – GSW reported he is putting the 2012 championship together. What do people want? No registrations as yet.

Please spread the word and try and get people entering in 2012. Do we look at autosolos? Please ask your clubs and let GSW know – is it worth doing?

Trials – JRS reported 2011 saw 30 registered contenders – 25 from one club and only 4 events. What is the future? How do we get people to enter? Do we run a 2012 Trial Championship?
JRS will send an email to all ANCC clubs and ask the question. We need interest from all clubs to keep the championship alive. The question was asked – is the name of Car Trials wrong – does it paint a picture of the wrong sort of event? CW will ask the question to the MSA on his next visit.
that he had over 20 registered contenders. 4 rounds have taken place the last been Wakefield but not many ANCC Competitors attended. Only 1 round left to go.
Winter Challenge – No report available.

Correspondance

An email had been received from Lindholme MSC (attached).
This was discussed but was felt that the information is available on the website so can be accessed from there. And there request would be too much for championship co-ordinators and the ANCC secretary to do. The ANCC website has links to all clubs and vice versa.

RLO / FLO / Training

RLO –Get your routes in early – failure to do so may result in the route been declined. If you are sending the route in my email – then make sure it is of the highest possible quality as it would be nice to see the route on the map!!

FLO – nothing.

TRAINING – Bob - Training at Stockport will be on Saturday 28th January 2012 and at Askham Bryan on Sunday 29th January 2012. A few places are still left.
